

New Jersey Resident Return Examples (tax year 2003)

Bulletin GIT-11

Introduction

The New Jersey Gross Income Tax Act imposes tax on the income of resident and nonresident individuals and estates and trusts. Residents are subject to tax on all income regardless of where it was earned.

This bulletin illustrates the correct return completion of a 2003 New Jersey Resident Income Tax Return (Form NJ-1040) for full-year and part-year residents in selected situations. This bulletin does not include completion of New Jersey's homestead rebate application. For information about the homestead rebate and for examples of completed homestead rebate applications, see Tax Topic Bulletin HR-2, Homestead Rebate Guidelines.

Important Changes.

- Personal Identification Numbers (PINs) are no longer assigned by the Division of Taxation. Instead, you will be asked to provide your date of birth when filing returns using NJ TeleFile or NJ WebFile.
- You can now print out income tax returns from the Division of Taxation's Web site (www.state.nj.us/treasury/taxation/) or order them from TaxFax (609-826-4500), and use those copies for filing.

Filing Requirements

Every resident individual, even a minor, whose gross income received during the tax year is more than $20,000 ($10,000 if filing status is single or married, filing separate return), is required to file a New Jersey Resident Income Tax Return (Form NJ-1040). A full-year resident whose annual gross income is under the applicable minimum income filing threshold need not file a return except to claim a refund of taxes withheld or estimated taxes paid. You must also file a return to receive a New Jersey earned income tax credit even if you have no tax liability to New Jersey. For more information on gross income, see page 2.

A person who became a resident of this State or moved out of this State during the year may be required to file a New Jersey income tax return and pay tax on that portion of the income received while a resident of New Jersey. Part-year residents must prorate all exemptions, deductions, and credits, as well as the pension and other retirement income exclusions, to reflect the period covered by the return. For more information, see Tax Topic Bulletin GIT-6, Part-Year Residents.

Filing Status

If filing a Federal income tax return, the same filing status must be used on the New Jersey income tax return as on the Federal return. Generally, if you are married and filing a joint Federal return, then a joint New Jersey return must be filed. If you are married and filing separately for Federal purposes, then the "married, filing separate return” filing status must be used for New Jersey. If you are not filing a Federal return, use the same filing status that would have been used if a Federal return had been filed.

If you meet the requirements to file as head of household for Federal income tax purposes, you may file as head of household for New Jersey. Certain married individuals living apart may file as head of household for New Jersey if they meet the requirements to file as head of household for Federal purposes.

For information on filing status for Federal purposes, contact the Internal Revenue Service. For more information on filing status for New Jersey purposes, see Tax Topic Bulletin GIT-4, Filing Status.

Gross Income

For New Jersey purposes, gross income includes income received in the form of money, goods, property, benefits, and services. A New Jersey resident must report all taxable income received, whether from New Jersey sources or not, on the State return.

Taxable Income

Taxable income includes the following:

- Wages and other compensation
- Interest and dividends
- Earnings on nonqualified withdrawals from qualified state tuition program accounts, including the New Jersey Better Educational Savings Trust Program (NJBEST) accounts
- Net profits from business, trade, or profession
- Net gains or income from sale or disposition of property
- Pensions, annuities, and IRA withdrawals
- Net distributive share of partnership income

- Net pro rata share of S corporation income
- Net rental, royalty, and copyright income
- Net gambling winnings
- Alimony
- Estate and trust income
- Income in respect of a decedent
- Prizes and awards, including scholarships and fellowships
- Value of residence provided by employer
- Fees for services rendered, including jury duty

New Jersey taxable income also includes the following which are not subject to Federal income tax:

- Interest from obligations of states and their political subdivisions, other than New Jersey and its political subdivisions
- Income earned by a resident from foreign employment
- Certain contributions to pensions and tax-deferred annuities
- Employee contributions to Federal Thrift Savings Funds, 403(b), 457, SEP, or any other type of retirement plan other than 401(k) Plans

Exempt Income

The following examples of exempt income should not be included when deciding if a return must be filed. With the exception of tax-exempt interest, these items should not appear anywhere on the State tax return.

- Federal Social Security
- Railroad Retirement (Tier 1 and Tier 2)
- United States military pensions and survivor’s benefit payments
- Life insurance proceeds received because of a person’s death
- Employee’s death benefits

- Permanent and total disability, including VA benefits
- Temporary disability received from the State of New Jersey or as third party sick pay
- Worker's Compensation
- Gifts and inheritances
- Qualifying scholarships or fellowship grants
- New Jersey Lottery winnings
- Unemployment Compensation
- Interest and capital gains from: (a) Obligations of the State of New Jersey or any of its political subdivisions; or (b) Direct Federal obligations exempt under law, such as U.S. Savings Bonds and Treasury Bills, Notes, and Bonds
- Distributions paid by mutual funds to the extent the distributions are attributable to interest earned on Federal obligations
- Certain distributions from "New Jersey Qualified Investment Funds"
- Earnings on qualified withdrawals from qualified state tuition program accounts, including the New Jersey Better Educational Savings Trust Program (NJBEST) accounts
- Employer and employee contributions to 401(k) Salary Reduction Plans (but not Federal Thrift Savings Funds)
- Some benefits received from certain employer-provided cafeteria plans (but not salary reduction or premium conversion plans)
- Contributions to and distributions from Archer MSAs if they are excluded for Federal income tax purposes
- Direct payments and benefits received under homeless persons assistance programs
- Homestead rebates
- NJ SAVER rebates
- Property tax reimbursements
- Income tax refunds (New Jersey, Federal, and other jurisdictions)
- New Jersey earned income tax credit payments
- Welfare
- Child support
- Amounts paid as reparations or restitution to Nazi Holocaust victims
- Assistance from a charitable organization, whether in the form of cash or property
- Federal Advance Child Tax Credit payments paid under the Jobs and Growth Tax Relief Reconciliation Act of 2003

Exemptions

Every resident taxpayer is allowed a personal exemption, even if that individual can be claimed as a dependent on another tax return. The additional exemptions for age, disability, or blindness may be claimed only by the taxpayer and/or spouse. These additional exemptions do not apply to dependents. The exemption for dependents attending colleges is in addition to the exemption claimed for that child or other qualified dependent. This exemption applies only to dependents and does not apply to the taxpayer and/or spouse.

Proof of Age. If either you or your spouse are eligible for an additional exemption for age, you must enclose proof of age such as a copy of a birth certificate, driver's license, or church records with your return the first time you claim the exemption.

Proof of Disability. If either you or your spouse are eligible for an additional exemption for disability or blindness, you must enclose a copy of the doctor's certificate or other medical records with your return the first time you claim the exemption.

Deductions

- Certain nonreimbursed medical expenses that were paid during the year may be deducted on the New Jersey income tax return. However, only expenses exceeding 2% of gross income, as shown on Line 29 of Form NJ-1040, may be deducted.
- Qualified Archer medical savings account (MSA) contributions not in excess of 75% of the amount of your annual health plan deductible (65% if you have a self-only plan).
- Self-employed individuals and more-than-2% shareholders of S corporations are allowed a deduction (up to 100%) for the cost of health insurance for the taxpayer and the taxpayer's spouse and dependents, but only to the extent that the taxpayer has earned income derived from the business under which the insurance plan is established. A taxpayer may not deduct any amount paid for health insurance coverage for any month in which the taxpayer was eligible to participate in any subsidized health plan maintained by an employer of the taxpayer or the taxpayer's spouse.
- Court-ordered alimony and separate maintenance payments may be deducted if paid to a spouse or former spouse.
- Qualified conservation contributions of qualified real property interests in New Jersey property, to the extent that the contribution amount is deductible for Federal income tax purposes.

Property Tax Deduction/Credit

Eligible homeowners and tenants who pay property taxes, either directly or through rent, qualify for either a deduction or refundable credit. To be eligible for a property tax deduction or property tax credit:

- You must have been domiciled and maintained a principal residence as a homeowner or tenant in New Jersey during 2003; and
- Your principal residence, whether owned or rented, must be subject to local property taxes, and property taxes must have been paid on that residence either as actual property taxes or through rent; and
- Your rented dwelling must have its own separate kitchen and bath facilities; and
- Your gross income on Line 29, Form NJ-1040, is more than $20,000 ($10,000 if filing status is single or married, filing separate return), or you or your spouse were 65 years of age or older or blind or disabled at the end of the tax year.

Taxpayers who were not 65 years of age or older or blind or disabled on December 31, 2003, with gross income of $20,000 or less ($10,000 if filing status is single or married, filing separate return) are not eligible for a property tax credit.

If you applied and were eligible for a 2002 property tax reimbursement and you continued to meet the eligibility requirements through 2003, enter the amount of your base year property taxes or 18% of your base year site fees on Line 1, Schedule 1 or Box 5a, Schedule A. (The amount of your base year property taxes or site fees is shown on Line 11 of your New Jersey Property Tax Reimbursement Application, Form PTR-2.) If you owned your home with someone other than your spouse or if your home consists of more than one dwelling unit, the amount of base year property taxes you report must reflect your percentage of ownership or the proportionate share of property taxes for the unit you occupy as your principal residence.

If you did not apply for a 2002 property tax reimbursement, but you are eligible and applying for a 2003 property tax reimbursement, you must enter on Line 1, Schedule 1 or Box 5a, Schedule A the amount of your 2002 property taxes due and paid as reported on your 2003 Property Tax Reimbursement Application, Form PTR-1. (Mobile home owners enter 18% of 2002 site fees.) If you owned your home with someone other than your spouse or if your home consists of more than one dwelling unit, the amount of 2002 property taxes you report must reflect your percentage of ownership or the proportionate share of property taxes for the unit you occupy as your principal residence.

For more information, see the instruction booklet for Form NJ-1040. To listen to recorded information on this topic, call our Automated Tax Information System from a Touch-tone phone at 1-800-323-4400 within New Jersey, New York, Pennsylvania, Delaware, and Maryland or 609-826-4400 from anywhere.

Pensions, Annuities, and IRA Withdrawals

Pensions, annuities, and certain IRA withdrawals are taxable on the New Jersey return although the State taxable amount may differ from the Federal amount. All state and local government, teachers', and Federal pensions, and Keogh Plans are treated in the same manner as pensions from the private sector. For more information on pensions, annuities, and retirement income exclusions, see Tax Topic Bulletin GIT-1, Pensions and Annuities.

If you are receiving a United States military pension or survivor's benefit payments, the military pension or survivor's benefit is not taxable for New Jersey gross income tax purposes, regardless of your age or disability status. For more information on military pensions, see Tax Topic Bulletin GIT-7, Military Personnel.

For New Jersey purposes, an IRA consists of a nontaxable part (your contributions) and a taxable part (earnings plus certain amounts, if any, rolled over from pension plans). If your contributions have been previously taxed, only the portion of the distribution that represents earnings is taxable. However, a qualified distribution from a Roth IRA is excludable and does not have to be reported on your New Jersey return. For more information on IRA withdrawals, see Tax Topic Bulletin GIT-2, IRA Withdrawals, and Technical Bulletin TB-44, Roth IRAs.

Estimated Tax Payments

Individuals who expect their New Jersey gross income tax liability to be more than $400 after taking into account all of their exemptions, deductions, credits, and payments for the tax year are required to make quarterly estimated tax payments. This may include taxpayers who do not have sufficient New Jersey income tax withheld from their wages and/or pension, those who are self-employed, or those whose income is from sources such as interest, dividends, or capital gains. Estimated payments are filed quarterly in equal installments on a Declaration of Estimated Tax (Form NJ-1040-ES). For more information on New Jersey estimated tax payments, see Tax Topic Bulletin GIT-8, Estimating Income Taxes.

Credit for Taxes Paid to Other Jurisdictions

If income is earned in another jurisdiction, a credit may apply on the New Jersey return if, within the same year, the income was subject to both:

- Income or wage tax imposed by another jurisdiction outside of New Jersey; and
- New Jersey income tax.

For this purpose, “jurisdiction” means any state (other than New Jersey) of the United States or political subdivision of such state, or the District of Columbia. Therefore, no credit is allowed for taxes paid to the U.S. Government, Canada, Puerto Rico, or any other foreign country or territory. Taxpayers claiming a credit for taxes paid to other jurisdictions are not required to enclose a copy of the tax return(s) filed with the other jurisdiction. For more information on credit for taxes paid to other jurisdictions, see Tax Topic Bulletins GIT-3W, Credit for Taxes Paid to Other Jurisdictions (Wage Income), and GIT-3B, Credit for Taxes Paid to Other Jurisdictions (Business/Nonwage Income).

Pennsylvania residents: refer to Tax Topic Bulletin GIT-3W or GIT-3B and the resident return instruction booklet (Form NJ-1040-P) for information on the Reciprocal Personal Income Tax Agreement between the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and the State of New Jersey.

New Jersey Earned Income Tax Credit

The New Jersey earned income tax credit is a credit for certain taxpayers who work and have earned income. The credit reduces the amount of tax you owe and may also give you a refund, even if you have no tax liability to New Jersey. If you are eligible and apply for a Federal earned income credit, you may also be eligible for a New Jersey earned income tax credit.

You must file a New Jersey resident income tax return to receive a New Jersey earned income tax credit, even if you are not required to file a return because your gross income is below the minimum income filing threshold. (See Filing Requirements on page 1.)

For tax year 2003 you are allowed a credit in the amount of 20% of your Federal earned income credit if:

- The filing status on both your Federal return and your New Jersey return is married, filing joint return, head of household, or qualifying widow(er); and
- Your gross income for the entire year from all sources was $20,000 or less; and
- You have at least one “qualifying child” for purposes of the Federal earned income credit.

NOTE: If your filing status is single or married, filing separate return, you may not claim a New Jersey earned income tax credit.

If you asked the Internal Revenue Service to calculate your Federal earned income credit, be sure to fill in the oval at Line 2 on the Earned Income Tax Credit Schedule. The IRS will provide information to the Division of Taxation in October 2004. Please allow at least 4–6 weeks for the Division to process the information and issue a check for your New Jersey earned income tax credit.

Part-Year Residents. If you were a New Jersey resident for only part of the taxable year, and your gross income for the entire year from all sources was $20,000 or less, you may qualify for a New Jersey earned income tax credit if you meet the other eligibility requirements. The amount of your credit must be prorated based upon the number of months you were a New Jersey resident. For this calculation 15 days or more is a month.

Sale of Home Exclusion

If you sell your principal residence, you may qualify to exclude all or part of any gain from your income regardless of age. Capital gain and the exclusion of all or part of the gain on the sale of a principal residence are computed in the same manner as for Federal income tax purposes. Any amount that is taxable for Federal purposes is taxable for New Jersey purposes. If you exclude any of the gain on the sale of your principal residence for Federal purposes, the same amount will be excluded for New Jersey purposes.

You can claim the exclusion if, during the 5-year period ending on the date of the sale, you have:

1. Owned the home for at least two years (the ownership test); and
2. Lived in the home as your principal residence for at least two years (the use test).

NOTE: If you owned and used the property as your principal residence for less than two years, and you qualify for a reduced exclusion for Federal purposes, you may claim a reduced exclusion for New Jersey purposes.

You can exclude up to $250,000 ($500,000 for certain married persons filing a joint return) of gain from the sale of your principal residence if both 1 and 2 below apply.

1. Neither you nor your spouse if filing a joint return is excluding gain from the sale of another home.
2. You or your spouse if filing a joint return owned and lived in the home for periods adding up to at least 2 years within the 5-year period ending on the date of sale.

If you are married, filing a joint return, both you and your spouse must meet the use test to qualify for the $500,000 exclusion.

If only one spouse meets the ownership and use tests, the qualified spouse can exclude up to $250,000 of the gain when filing either a joint return or a married, filing separate return.

You cannot exclude the gain on the sale of your principal residence if, during the 2-year period ending on the date of the sale, you sold another home at a gain and excluded all or part of that gain. If you cannot exclude the gain, you must include it in your income and complete Schedule B. Be sure the amount you report on Schedule B agrees with the amount shown on your Federal return. However, you can claim a reduced exclusion if you sold the home due to a change in health or place of employment and you qualify for a reduced exclusion for Federal purposes.

Return Preparation

The following are examples of completed resident returns (Forms NJ-1040) for various situations.

Example 1

Leonard Fisher (Age 63)

SS# 999-27-3660

Evelyn Fisher (Age 56)

SS# 999-62-8391

101 Blackwell Road, Apt. B

Cape May Point, NJ 08212 (Cape May County)

The Fishers are full-year residents of New Jersey and are married, filing a joint return, with no dependents.

Evelyn's wages	$62,731
Joint taxable interest	15,426
Joint tax-exempt interest	7,900
Joint dividends	27,454
Leonard's pension:
Received this year (3rd yr.)	36,000
Contributions to the pension	100,000
Employer's contributions to the pension	100,000
Leonard's Social Security	15,600
Loss from rental property 129 Bay Road Cape May, New Jersey	524
NJ income tax withholdings	3,136
Estimated tax payments	400
Property taxes paid	1,300
Rent paid	8,400

Mr. and Mrs. Fisher lived in their house, located at 18 King's Court, Cape May, New Jersey since August 9, 1976. On May 23, 2003, they sold the house for $275,000. The cost basis on their Federal return was $117,000. The Fishers may exclude up to $500,000 of the gain from the sale of the principal residence for their filing status. Therefore, they will exclude the entire $158,000 gain on the sale of their home on New Jersey

Schedule B. They will enclose Schedule B with their income tax return and keep a copy for their records.

In addition, they must enclose a completed New Jersey Schedule C showing rental loss from their rental property. The New Jersey Gross Income Tax Act does not allow losses to be claimed against gains in other categories of income; therefore, Mr. and Mrs. Fisher will make no entry for rental income on Line 22 of their return.

Mr. Fisher retired on December 31, 2000. For tax year 2001, he completed "Worksheet A" contained in the NJ-1040 resident income tax return instruction booklet to determine which pension method to use. He was able to use the Three-Year Rule Method and for the past two years he was not required to report any taxable pension on his State income tax return. Mr. and Mrs. Fisher did not submit "Worksheet A" with their income tax return but retained it for their records. This year they used the worksheet to determine that the taxable pension amount to be reported on this year's tax return is $8,000. They will complete "Worksheet D" to determine their pension exclusion amount. Mr. Fisher is eligible to exclude up to $20,000, because his filing status is married, filing a joint return. He will use $8,000 of the exclusion and make no entry for taxable pension on Line 19c of their return. The remainder of his pension exclusion ($12,000) cannot be used as an Other Retirement Income Exclusion because the Fisher's earned income (total of: wages, net profits from business, distributive share of partnership income, and net pro rata share of S corporation income) is more than $3,000, as shown on "Worksheet D." A full version of the worksheet can be seen in Example 2 on page 15 of this publication or in the NJ-1040 instruction booklet.

$50 ($25 if filing status is married, filing separate return and you maintain the same residence as your spouse). Part-year residents, see instructions.

In order to determine whether it is better to claim the property tax deduction or the property tax credit, Mr. and Mrs. Fisher complete Schedule 1, contained in the NJ-1040 resident income tax return instruction booklet. They determined that they will receive a greater tax benefit by taking the property tax deduction.

NOTE: Although Mr. and Mrs. Fisher are required to complete Schedule HR-A, before completing Schedule 1, Schedule HR-A is not included in this publication. For more information on completing Schedule HR-A, order Tax Topic Bulletin HR-2, Homestead Rebate Guidelines.

The following pages show how Mr. and Mrs. Fisher will complete their State income tax return. After taking credit for Mrs. Fisher's withholdings and their joint estimated tax payments, they will be entitled to a refund of $742. However, they are requesting that a $10 donation be made to each of the five specified check-offs and to the designated fund of their choice. They will receive a refund of $682.

Since they have taxable income of more than $100,000, the Fishers will be required to use the New Jersey Tax Rate Schedules rather than the New Jersey Tax Table to calculate their tax liability.

Example 2

Henry James (Age 65)

SS# 999-21-2351

Mary James (Age 64)

SS# 999-35-1443

125 Madison Street

Morris, NJ 07082 (Morris County)

Mr. and Mrs. James are full-year residents of New Jersey and are married, filing a joint return, with no dependents.

Henry's wages	$2,940
Joint taxable interest	1,000
Joint exempt interest	3,500
Joint dividends	2,500
Mary's fully taxable pension	2,500
Henry's fully taxable pension	6,000
Henry's 1st year IRA withdrawal ...	1,200
Total joint Social Security	17,500
NJ income tax withholdings	45
Property taxes paid	4,244

The value of Henry's traditional IRA on December 31, 2003, was $12,455 with previously taxed contributions in the amount of $10,000. They must complete Part I of "Worksheet C - IRA Withdrawals" contained in the NJ-1040 resident income tax return instruction booklet to determine the taxable portion of the IRA withdrawal.

Mr. and Mrs. James will retain the worksheet with their tax records and use the information in Part I of the worksheet to complete Part II of the worksheet next year.

They will combine the taxable portion of the IRA withdrawal with their fully taxable pensions to arrive at the total taxable pension to be reported on Line 19a of the State income tax return. After determining the taxable amount, they will be entitled to deduct up to $20,000 as a pension exclusion.

Because Mr. and Mrs. James have less than $20,000 in taxable pension to report on their tax return, they will complete "Worksheet D - Other Retirement Income Exclusion" contained in the NJ-1040 resident income tax return instruction booklet to see if they qualify for an additional exclusion.

As New Jersey residents with gross income of less than $20,000 for the year, Mr. and Mrs. James have no tax liability to New Jersey but will file the tax return to claim a refund of withholdings.

Mr. and Mrs. James will not complete Schedule 1 (located in the NJ-1040 resident income tax return instruction booklet) to determine whether to take a property tax deduction or a property tax credit as their income is below the minimum filing threshold of $20,000. They are, however, eligible for a property tax credit of $50, which will be paid with their homestead rebate (provided they complete and file a rebate application, Form HR-1040, on or before January 18, 2005). The James' will receive their property tax credit in their homestead rebate check even though they are filing an income tax return.

Since Mr. James is claiming the "Age 65 or Older" exemption for the first time for tax year 2003, he must enclose proof of age with the return. (See page 3 for acceptable documentation.)

The following pages show how Mr. and Mrs. James will complete their worksheets and tax return.

Example 3

Albert Benson (Age 45)
SS# 999-78-5543
12 Terrace View Lane
Houston, TX 77052

Mr. Benson was a part-year resident of New Jersey. He lived here from December 1, 2003, to December 31, 2003. Mr. Benson files as head of household with 1 dependent child attending college full time (age 19).

While a New Jersey resident:

Albert's wages (from Phila.)	$ 4,300
Albert's wages (from NJ)	2,000
Unreimbursed medical expenses	300
Taxable interest	50
New Jersey Lottery winnings	350
Total NJ income tax withheld	20
Philadelphia wage tax paid	165
Rent paid (one month)	750

Income earned while a nonresident:

(from outside New Jersey) $ 65,000

Although Mr. Benson had gross income of less than $20,000 while a New Jersey resident, his gross income for the entire year was over that amount. He is required to file a New Jersey resident tax return for the time he lived in New Jersey and will prorate all deductions and exemptions.

Mr. Benson may deduct unreimbursed medical expenses in excess of 2% of his New Jersey income. To arrive at that figure, he will complete "Worksheet E - Deduction for Medical Expenses" in the NJ-1040 resident income tax return instruction booklet.

Mr. Benson works in Philadelphia and must pay a Philadelphia wage tax on his salary. To calculate the amount of his credit for taxes paid to another jurisdiction, Mr. Benson will complete a New Jersey Schedule A. In order to determine the amount of salary actually taxed by Philadelphia (to be entered on Line 1 of Schedule A), the amount of wage tax deducted from Mr. Benson's salary must be divided by the Philadelphia nonresident tax rate (.039127 from January, 1 to June 30, 2003, and .038801 from July 1 to December 31, 2003).

The following pages show how Mr. Benson will complete his State tax return, New Jersey Schedule A, Worksheet F, and Worksheet E. When Mr. Benson completes Schedule A, he determines that he will receive a greater tax benefit by taking a Property Tax Credit in the amount of $4 which, along with $20 in New Jersey withholdings, will be applied against his $28 tax liability. A balance of $3 is due with his return but Mr. Benson will enclose a check for $23 so that he can donate $20 to the NJ Children's Trust Fund.

Example 4

Steve Grey (Age 41)

SS# 999-26-4921

Karen Grey (Age 39)

SS# 999-26-5814

222 Pine Bark Drive

Voorhees, NJ 08360 (Camden County)

Mr. and Mrs. Grey are full-year residents of New Jersey and are married, filing a joint return. They have 2 dependent children (ages 16 and 13).

Steve's wages	$ 12,200
Karen's wages	4,500
Joint taxable interest	100
Total NJ income tax withheld	250
Property taxes paid	2,370
Federal earned income credit	3,784

Mr. and Mrs. Grey's gross income is below the minimum filing threshold of $20,000 (married, filing joint). Although they have no tax liability to New Jersey, they will need to file the tax return to claim a refund of withholdings and to apply for the New Jersey earned income tax credit.

Mr. and Mrs. Grey will complete their NJ-1040 down to Line 29. Since they have no tax liability to New Jersey, they will continue completing the return with Line 41. They are not eligible to claim a property tax deduction/credit because their income is below the minimum filing threshold and neither is 65 or older or blind or disabled.

When Mr. and Mrs. Grey filed their Federal income tax return, they were eligible and applied for an earned income credit. They had two "qualifying children" for purposes of the Federal earned income credit. They complete the Earned Income Tax Credit Schedule on Page 3 of Form NJ-1040 and determine that they are eligible for the New Jersey earned income tax credit. By completing this form they are also able to calculate the amount of their New Jersey earned income tax credit.

The following pages show how Mr. and Mrs. Grey will complete their State income tax return. After taking credit for their withholdings and claiming the New Jersey earned income tax credit, they will be entitled to a refund of $1007. However, they are requesting that a $10 donation be made to the designated fund of their choice and they will receive a refund of $997.
